

Attachment 11

Khelen jejkhávresa o khelimo, so bušol “e saps taj e lejtri”.

Rules of the game:

Snakes and ladders

Players throw dices to move up the playing field according to the numbers. They can climb up the ladders or slide down on the snakes (the a player steps on the head of the snake, he/she has to move down to the closest tail). Who reaches first the last square is the winner. When stepping on a square with ? the pupil take a question from the packages of cards and answers it. If not, he/she has to wait one round to take another cards with a question.